

Articles contributed to the Yankalilla Regional News

Note January issue covers Jan/ Feb*

Issue	Article
July 2025	Bowyer Brickyards helped build a community
June 2025	Normanville Wesleyan Chapel and cemetery ... to RSL Hall
May 2025	Woodvale ... supplier of fresh and dried fruits for the district, plus export
April 2025	Finniss Valley ... port, flour mill, timber town, and holiday destination
March 2025	Early overland transport to Yankalilla and beyond
January 2025	'Fairview' Bald Hills began with a gum slab hut
December 2024	Normanville jetty ... once served a busy port
November 2024	Yoho - birthplace of SA's thoroughbred industry
October 2024	Appakaldree – 180 years of history
September 2024	Normanville Court House and Police Station
August 2024	St James Delamere – more than 154 years of history
July 2024	Dunstall Cottage – a small home that once housed a large family
June 2024	The Taverners of Torrens Vale
May 2024	Artist, etcher, and master printmaker of Second Valley
April 2024	Saint Mary MacKillop and the Yankalilla connection
March 2024	Early settlers to Inman Valley
January 2024	Talisker – once SA's largest silver-lead producer
December 2023	Some cheesemakers of Myponga
November 2023	Back Valley and Lower Inman – some early history
October 2023	Cape Jervis – early settlers of 'Lands End'
September 2023	Dry stone walls – heritage that should be preserved
August 2023	Myponga ... Fleurieu Peninsula's 'milk central'
July 2023	Bullaparinga ... once a village
June 2023	Heritage-listed sheep dip served Torrens Vale for more than 50 years
May 2023	A Lush history that grew with Inman Valley
April 2023	Keeping Tjilbruke's journey alive
March 2023	Yankalilla's first bank ... and last
January 2023	South Australia's first war (1899-1902)
December 2022	60 years of a reservoir in the Lovely Valley
November 2022	Second Valley Soldiers' Memorial Hall – 100 years of history
October 2022	140 years of the Yankalilla Show [not included]
September 2022	Buses of a bygone era
August 2022	Normanville Hotel – more than 170 years of history
July 2022	World's first Living Avenue of Honour at Normanville
June 2022	Coastal ship remembered at Delamere
May 2022	Former sentinel on the hill served vital surveillance role
April 2022	Yankalilla Post Office – a centre of communication for almost 180 years
March 2022	St Thomas's Church Inman Valley, Parsons, Kellys and Sir Hubert Wilkins
January 2022	Brookside and the Smith family
November 2021	What is the future for two historic local churches?
October 2021	Vale Ray Clarke – a full life lived well
September 2021	William George Field ... mariner and pioneer pastoralist
August 2021	Flax ... an early cultivation and export
July 2021	-
June 2021	The 'sisters' Dorrington ... distinguished service during WW1
May 2021	Alexander Christie ... mailman from Cape Jervis
April 2021	Dunstall cottage – a community treasure in Normanville

Articles contributed to the Yankalilla Regional News

Note January issue covers Jan/ Feb*

Issue	Article
March 2021	Myponga plaque unveiling ... 50 years on + Book review
January 2021	Yankalilla Sea Dragons grew out of a long history of croquet
December 2020	Growth of education in the Yankalilla district
November 2020	Sport a part of the community from earliest beginnings
October 2020	A valley carved out by ice
September 2020	Some early observations of Indigenous inhabitants (cont'd)
August 2020	Some early observations of the original inhabitants
July 2020	Serena Lake and Bible Christian Church
June 2020	Hudson Thomas Beare – colonist
May 2020	Daniel Leak of Glenburn (Delamere)
April 2020	'The Olives' – the first house on the 'first' main street in Yankalilla
March 2020	Early wayside inns go by the wayside ...
January 2020	Henry Kemmis may have been earliest importer of alpacas to Australia
December 2019	Historic Hillsley
November 2019	British cargo ship holed by German mine in SA waters
October 2019	From flour mill to birthplace of a Melbourne Cup winner
September 2019	Yankalilla show ... more than 160 years of agricultural history
August 2019	Alunite from Carrickalinga fills local potash gap during war
July 2019	Heritage-listed sheep dip at Torrens Vale
June 2019	Tonto Homestead – a long and interesting heritage
May 2019	Butterworth's flour mill and Bungala House
April 2019	Fleurieu Peninsula was the hub of Adelaide's dairy produce
March 2019	Australia's richest uranium find near Myponga
January 2019	Bushfires ... a part of our past and a feature of our future
December 2018	Yaccas a savior in droughts and economic depression
November 2018	South Australia's first dentist ... a man of many attributes
October 2018	Observations and occupations of an early settler ...
September 2018	Influence of the Irish immigrants
August 2018	Anacotilla – an early example of innovative agriculture
July 2018	Mining to build – Rapid Bay quarry and jetty
June 2018	Mining to build – marble and limestone
May 2018	Mystery of the Yankalilla bank robbery
April 2018	Police at Yankalilla and Normanville
March 2018	Development of mail, post and telegraph services
January 2018	Mining adds to region's economy
December 2017	Introduction of navigational aids for the little sailing ships
November 2017	Little sailing ships ... sustaining the colony's economy
October 2017	Little sailing ships ... underpinning early settlement
September 2017	O'Leary's continue horse-racing legacy of Beau Neire
August 2017	From flour mill to successful horse stud
July 2017	Colonial horseracing legacy continues on the Fleurieu
June 2017	For transport and farming ... horses were integral with development